

Across Realms Untold
(Verse 1)

Across the silver dunes we roam,
Where winds remember every home.
From mountain heart to ocean wide,
The dragons lead where dreams reside.

(Verse 2)

Through frozen peaks where echoes call,
An alpine dragon guards them all.
Its breath of mist, a hymn of sky,
Lifts weary souls and bids them fly.

(Chorus)

Across realms untold, we fly,
Through portals painted in the sky.
Light to shadow, flame to mist,
The journey ends where stars are kissed.

(Verse 3)

Through crystal gates and desert streams,
Through every dawn of mortal dreams,
Our wings remember ancient songs,
Of where the heart of myth belongs.

(Bridge)

Crystal wings and cosmic flame,
Every realm whispers your name.
Through every world, the spirit calls —
Beyond the edge, the starlight falls.

(Final Chorus – soft reprise)

Across realms untold, we soar,
To lands of light forevermore.
When silence comes and night unfolds,
We rest in realms the heart still holds.
